Handmade Animal Books by Ocean Avenue Elementary School First Graders

April 14 - 21
Portland Public Library
Sam L. Cohen Children's Library

The Sam L. Cohen Children's Library is delighted to present an exhibit of handmade animal books created by first graders at Ocean Avenue Elementary School during a Side x Side bookmaking program.

Led by classroom teachers and teaching artists Sarah Boyden and Jill Osgood, the bookmaking program involved researching and writing about an animal, illustrating it, and using various drawing and collage techniques to bring the animals and their habitats to life within the pages of each handmade book. Students also learned the ancient art of making paste paper covers to use for their books.

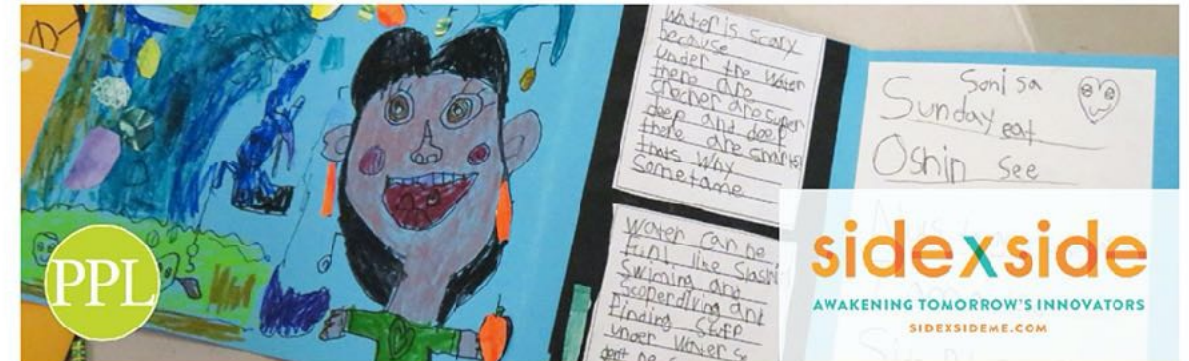

Please visit the Portland Public Library at 5 Monument Square in Portland to view these beautiful pieces of art!

Side x Side ignites academic excellence in education through comprehensive arts-based programs bringing critical thinking, creativity and innovation into the classroom. Through community partnerships with the University of Southern Maine, the Portland Public School Department and local artists, professionals and colleges, Side x Side integrates science, technology, literacy and the humanities with the arts to enhance school curriculum.

Side x Side programs are funded by the US Department of Education through an AEMDD grant.

The Sam L. Cohen Children's Library is delighted to present an exhibit of handmade poetry books created by first graders at Riverton Elementary School during a Side x Side bookmaking program.

Led by classroom teachers and teaching artists Sarah Boyden and Mia Bogoyo, first graders created handmade poetry books during a month-long program in which they wrote poems and illustrated them using various drawing and collage techniques. They learned to 'Think Big' as they developed a two page spread to emphasize the theme of their poems. Students also learned the ancient art of making paste paper covers to use for their books.

Please visit the Portland Public Library at 5 Monument Square in Portland to view these beautiful pieces of art!
